CIVIL ACTION NO. H-15-3003

ORDER

Overille Denton Thompson, a former inmate of the Harris County Jail, sued in October 2015,¹ alleging civil rights violations resulting from a denial of due process. Thompson is representing himself and proceeding without prepaying costs. He sued Meredith Daniels, a police informant, alleging that she was grossly negligent, tampered with and fabricated physical evidence, and aided in maliciously prosecuting him.

On November 4, 2015, the court administratively closed this lawsuit pending the trial or other disposition of the charges against Thompson. (Docket Entry No. 5). The court advised Thompson that he could move to reinstate the case within 30 days after the pending criminal charges

On June 2, 2016, Thompson moved to reinstate this case. (Docket Entry No. 7). When he filed this lawsuit, he was detained in the Harris County Jail. His most recent court filing indicates that he was detained in the Jefferson County Jail in Beaumont, Texas. Online research reveals that Thompson is no longer at either location.

Under Local Rule 83.4, a litigant representing himself is responsible for keeping the Clerk of Court advised in writing of his current address. The court sends notices only to the address in the Clerk's file. Thompson has not provided the court with an accurate current address. His motion to reinstate, (Docket Entry No. 7), is denied without prejudice to reconsideration if Thompson provides an accurate address. Thompson's motion to proceed without prepayment of fees, (Docket Entry No. 8), is also denied.

SIGNED on August 12, 2016, at Houston, Texas.
